HICKOFF TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL

With summer winding down and fall around the corner, college campuses are beginning to energize. Media days have taken place, week two games have already kicked off, and you might have even seen a Bowl Season matchup prediction or two. I think we can all agree that there is no better time of year than the start of college football.

Coming off the best Gasparilla Bowl in our 15-year history and an outstanding in-state matchup between the UCF Knights (AAC) and Florida Gators (SEC), we had much to talk about this off-season. Sponsors, community partners, and fans across the country filled a sold out (63,699) Raymond James Stadium, resulting in a standing-room only crowd.

We could not be more excited about this year's competition, with our game again in the spotlight for post-season college football. Earlier this summer, we announced that fans will fill Raymond James Stadium Christmas week on Friday, December 23, with the game broadcast live on ESPN at 6:30 pm. With only one other bowl that afternoon, eyes across the country will again focus on Tampa Bay and the Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl.

In the coming months we will continue expanding our corporate partner list, enhancing community partner programs, hosting various bowl events, and finalizing operational plans for game week. Then, on Selection Sunday, December 4, we'll announce another exciting matchup that will include teams from our three primary conference partners, the American Athletic Conference (AAC), Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), or Southeastern Conference (SEC).

We believe in what it means to be a part of TEAM TAMPA BAY, invested in this community, and bringing excitement on and off the field of play. We sincerely appreciate the role you play in building a winning atmosphere!

Together we can do more!
